

ATI Community Health Proctored Exam 2019 Form C.
(UPDATED WITH ALL CORRECT ANSWERS)

A community health nurse is providing teaching about nutrition guidelines to a group of adolescents. Which of the following information should the nurse include in the teaching?

ANS- Appetite naturally increases during the adolescent years

An occupational health nurse is caring for a client who does not speak the same language as the nurse. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first?

ANS- Determine the client's primary language

A case manager is caring for a client who is being discharged following total hip arthroplasty. Which of the following actions is an example of the nurse functioning in the negotiator role?

ANS- Discuss payment options with various pharmacies

A nurse manager is providing teaching to a newly licensed nurse about Mantoux testing. Which of the following clients should the nurse manager include as an example of a client who might manifest a false positive reading?

ANS- A client who has received the Bacille Calmette-Guerin (BCG) vaccine within the last 10 years

A school nurse is planning primary prevention activities for the new school year. Which of the following should the nurse include? (SATA)

ANS-

Lobbying for funding for health promotion efforts

Teaching a class about the risks of cigarette smoking

Organizing a program to promote skateboard safety

A recently hired occupational health nurse is assessing hazards in the work environment. Which of the following actions will help the nurse detect physical hazards?

ANS- Measure noise levels at various locations in the facility

Hospice nurses are planning care for a client who follows traditional American Indian practices. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

ANS- Discuss safe use of herbal medications

A community health nurse is working with a group of homeless veterans who have PTSD. Which of the following interventions should the nurse implement?

ANS- Teach the clients to practice deep breathing exercises

A group of technicians from a local automotive repair shop presents to an urgent care clinic with reports of dizziness, headaches, and nausea. After providing need for care for the clients, which of the following government agencies should the nurse be notified to follow up on these reports?

ANS- OSHA

A nurse is providing teaching to a 50-year-old female client. Which of the following statements should the nurse include in the teaching?

ANS- You should have complete eye examinations every two years until the age of 64

A nurse is caring for a client who asks, "can I decide not to continue with chemotherapy?" The nurse responds, "this is your choice, and I'll support whatever decision you make." The nurse's response is an example of which of the ethical principles?

ANS- Autonomy

A nurse manager at that clinic is reviewing the preventive services offered to clients. Which of the following activities should the nurse identify as secondary prevention activity?

ANS- Refer a client who is recovering from substance abuse disorder to a social service program

An occupational health nurse is discussing health promotion with a client who has a history of obesity. Which of the following comments indicates the client is using rationalization as a coping mechanism?

ANS- I am obese because it is in my genes

A home health nurse is evaluating an older client. Which of the following assessment findings should the nurse report as a possible indicator of elder abuse?

ANS- The client exhibits extreme thirst

A nurse in a Health Department is participating in an immunization clinic. The nurse should identify which of the following children requires an alteration in the standard immunization?

ANS- A 12-month-old infant who has sickle cell disease

The partner of an older adult client who has Alzheimer's disease reports that he is not eating. The home health aide tells the nurse that the client partner refuses to assist the client with feeding. The partner insists that the client feeds himself without help. Which of the following is the priority action of the nurse to take?

ANS- Determine the client's ability to self-feed

The first response team is working at the location of a bombing incident. A nurse triaging the group of clients should give treatment priority to which of the following clients?

ANS- A client who has a rigid abdomen and manifestations of shock

A client arrives at a mental health clinic and tells the nurse that she has no purpose in life. Which of the following is the nurse's priority response?

ANS- Have you been thinking about harming yourself?

A community health nurse is teaching a group of adolescent clients about substance use disorders. Which of the following statements by a client indicates an understanding of the teaching?

ANS- Opioids cause a decrease in respiratory rate

A nurse case manager is providing discharge planning for a client. The nurse is functioning as which of the following roles when arranging for the delivery of medical equipment to the client's home?

ANS- Coordinator

A nurse is providing teaching to a newly licensed nurse about case management. The nurse should include which of the following tasks as the responsibility of the case manager?

ANS- Evaluate the cost effectiveness of client's treatments

A home health nurse is making a home safety evaluation visit for an older client who was recently discharged from the facility after receiving a diagnosis of diabetes mellitus. Which of the following findings indicates a need for corrective intervention? (SATA)

ANS- An extension cord extends across the floor from the electrical outlet to a floor lamp

The water heater is set at 130 degrees F

A community health nurse is planning to use web-based information resources in the care of a client who is undergoing dialysis. Which of the following criteria should the nurse consider and select appropriate resources for the client?

ANS- The website provides a peer review process for publishing information

Public health nurses address community leaders at a forum about community improvement. The nurse should identify which of the following groups as the fastest growing segment of the homeless population?

ANS- Families who have children

A home health nurse is teaching a client about the safe use of crutches. Which of the following information should the nurse include in the teaching?

ANS- Lean forward while walking with crutches

A community health nurse is caring for a client who has a new diagnosis of gonorrhea. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

ANS- Notify the state health department

A community health clinic is planning annual goals. Which of the following outcomes addresses the ethical principle of distributive justice?

ANS- Clients receive medicare benefits when eligible

A community health nurse is planning a program for young adults about STI prevention. Which of the following actions should the nurse take preparing for this program?

ANS- Collect data to identify learner current knowledge base

A community health nurse notes that 6 new cases of diabetes mellitus have been reported in the past 3 months. IN the previous year, 5 cases were reported. The population of the community is 15,000 people. Which of the following is the prevalence proportion for the community?

ANS- 73.3/100,000

A community health nurse is teaching a group of parents about manifestations of alcohol withdrawal. Which of the following manifestations should the nurse include in the teaching?

ANS- Seizures

Community health nurses working with a migrant population should recognize which of the following interventions as necessary to provide care to the population?

ANS- Providing health services at work sites

A nurse working with a parent suspected of child abuse recognizes that the social factor most predictive of abusive behavior is...

ANS- Prior exposure to violence

A home health nurse is visiting a client who has a new diagnosis of diabetes mellitus. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first?

ANS- Identify the client's dietary preferences

A nurse is assessing an outbreak of mumps among school-age children. Using the epidemiological triangle, the nurse should recognize which of the following as the host?

ANS- The children

Which of the following federal agencies should the community health nurse seek guidance from regarding a public building that has asbestos leaking from the heating duct insulation?

ANS- Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

A nurse educator is teaching a group of newly licensed nurses about maintaining client confidentiality according to HIPAA regulations. Which of the following statements by a newly licensed nurse indicates an understanding of the teaching?

ANS- HIPAA rules allow clients to receive a copy of their medical record

During a home health visit, a school-age child who has muscular dystrophy confides in the nurse that he was struck by his parents. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first?

ANS- Check the client for injuries

A nurse is caring for a client who is homeless. Which of the following should the nurse take first?

ANS- Determine the client's understanding of her living situation

A nurse in a clinic is reviewing home safety precautions with a client who is to begin radioactive iodine therapy. Which of the following statements of the client indicates an understanding of the teaching?

ANS- I will use a toilet that is not used by others in my family

A nurse is conducting a community assessment. Which of the following information should the nurse include as part of the windshield survey?

ANS- Housing quality

During a routine school visit to physical education class, a nurse receives multiple reports of shortness of breath, coughing, and nausea. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first?

ANS- Establish a triage area

A school nurse is caring for a child who has muscular dystrophy and is having difficulty swallowing at lunch. Which of the following referrals should the nurse initiate?

ANS- Speech language pathologist

A home health nurse is receiving messages from a group of clients. Which of the following clients should the nurse contact first?

ANS- A client reports that her new colostomy stoma appears purple

A school nurse is planning safety education for a group of adolescents. The nurse should give priority to which of the following topics as the leading cause of death for this age group?

ANS- Motor vehicle safety

A nurse in a community health center is counseling a group of clients currently experiencing intimate partner abuse. Which of the following strategies is a priority for the nurse to include in the counseling?

ANS- Providing referrals for legal counseling

Public health nurse is assisting a client who is a recent immigrant. The client refuses assistance from community resources. Which of the following actions should the nurse take to provide culturally appropriate care? (SATA)

ANS-

Learn more about the client's ethnic values

Review the client's current health practices

A community health nurse is teaching a group of older adults about hypertension. The nurse should identify which of the following clients as having a barrier to learning?

ANS- Low literacy

A nurse is reviewing data for communicable diseases in rural health regions. Which of the following data should the nurse identify as an age factor affecting the spread of communicable diseases?

ANS- A change in the prevalence of older adults obtaining the pneumococcal vaccine

A nurse working in an infectious disease clinic for a client who has a new diagnosis of Lyme disease. Which of the following agencies are responsible for voluntarily reporting cases of this disease to the CDC?

ANS- State health department

A nurse is working with a case manager for a client who participates in a health maintenance organization (HMO). The nurse should identify that a health maintenance organization provides which of the following payment structures?

ANS- The provider is paid a fixed sum for the client on a monthly or yearly basis

A nurse is discussing short and long-term goals with a client who has alcohol use disorder and has been admitted to a treatment facility. Which of the following statements is appropriate for the nurse to include in the discussion?

ANS- He will be learning functional skills to replace their defense mechanisms and behaviors all in treatment

A nurse manager is reviewing the disaster plan at a long-term care facility. Which of the following is the most comprehensive method for the nurse to determine the effectiveness of the plan?

ANS- Review how the staff implements the plan during a hands-on practice drill

A parish nurse is planning activities for a faith-based community. Which of the following activities should the nurse include?

ANS- Teach stress management strategies

A community health nurse is educating a parent about the importance of hepatitis B immunization. Which of the following exclamations should the nurse give to the parent about the disease?

ANS- Three doses of the immunization give children life-long protection from hepatitis B

A nurse working in an assisted care facility is developing a disaster plan. Which of the following is the first action the nurse will take?

ANS- Determine potential environmental health hazards

A home health nurse is providing teaching to a client who has diabetes mellitus about proper disposal of insulin syringes. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the teaching?

ANS- I will discard the syringes in a metal container

A nurse is providing teaching to a client who has a confirmed case of TB. Which of the following statements by the client indicates teaching has been effective?

ANS- I will be taking medication daily for at least 6 months

A community health nurse is in the initial phase of planning a smoking cessation program. Which of the following is the first action the nurse should take?

ANS- Determine the prevalence of smoking in the community

A hospice nurse is concerned that the partner of a client is experiencing caregiver burden. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first?

ANS- Explore possible solutions with the partner

A nurse is volunteering at a local community center addressing a variety of health needs with a group of older adult clients. Which of the following interventions should the nurse identify as a tertiary prevention strategy?

ANS- Providing a class on living with arthritis

A nurse is counseling a client who is to undergo enzyme linked immunosorbent assay testing for HIV. Which of the following information should the nurse include?

ANS- The test measures antibodies to the virus

A community health nurse is providing teaching to a group of clients who have alcohol use disorder. Which of the following findings should the nurse include in the teaching as a manifestation of alcohol withdrawal?

ANS- Insomnia

A home health nurse is caring for a client who has chemotherapy-induced nausea that has been resistant to relief from pharmacological measures. Which of the following interventions should the nurse initiate? (SATA)

ANS-

Provide sips of room-temperature ginger ale between meals

Maintain the head of the bed in an elevated position after eating

Assist the client in using guided imagery

A community health clinic nurse manager is reviewing the incidence rate of chlamydia in the state. In a given year, 3,144 new cases were reported and the population was estimated at 325,985. Which of the following is the incidence rate in the state for the year?

ANS- About 1 reported case per 10,000 population

A nurse is working in a shelter following a disaster. Which of the following is the priority action for the nurse to take?

ANS- Address the physical needs of clients

A client who has diabetes mellitus asks a home health nurse to help her adapt some of her traditional cultural foods to fit her meal plan. Which of the following is the first action the nurse should take when assisting this client?

ANS- Explain the diabetes exchange list1

A school nurse is implementing health screenings. Which of the following assessment findings should the nurse recognize as the highest priority?

ANS- A child who has nits

A 35-year-old client who has a diagnosis of tuberculosis informs the providers office that she is unable to pay for the treatment. Which of the following actions by the nurse will facilitate obtaining appropriate treatment?

ANS- Help the client apply for Medicare

A nurse is providing education to a group of adolescents who are pregnant and attending high school. Which of the following information should the nurse include in the teaching?

ANS- Caffeinated beverages should be replaced with caffeine-free beverages

A nurse is caring for a client who is having difficulty performing activities of daily living. The nurse is functioning in which of the following roles when arranging for an occupational therapist to visit the client?

ANS- Case manager

A home health nurse is scheduled for a first-time visit to a client. Which of the following should the nurse perform first?

ANS- Mental status examination

A nurse at a community clinic is preparing an educational guide about cultural variances in expression of pain. Which of the following information should the nurse include?

ANS- Chinese cultural practices include enduring pain to prevent family dishonor

A nurse at a local health department is caring for several clients. Which of the following infections should the nurse report to the state health department?

ANS- Chlamydia

The partner of an older adult client who has Alzheimer's disease reports that he is not eating. The home health aide tells the nurse that the client's partner refuses to assist the client with feeding. The partner insists the client feeds himself without help. Which of the following is the priority action the nurse should take?

ANS- Determine the client's ability to self-feed

A clinic nurse is assessing a client who has measles. Which of the following should the nurse expect?

ANS- Koplik spots inside the mouth

A community health nurse is interviewing a client who reports intimate partner abuse. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

ANS- Record a summary of the client's description of the event

A nurse in a mobile health clinic is caring for a client who requires a tetanus immunization and is accompanied by his daughter. The client does not speak the same language as the nurse. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

ANS- Arrange for a member of the client's community to interpret the teaching

A nurse is working with a community health care team to devise strategies for preventing violence in the community. Which of the following interventions is an example of tertiary prevention?

ANS- Presenting community education programs about stress management