

AANP FNP Certification Exam Questions with complete solutions

III first time audible, IV first time thrill - All diastolic murmurs are pathological. Murmurs Grades I-barely II-audible III- clearly audible. IV- first time thrill V- Steth edge VI-entire steth. EXAM

Fundal Height 12 weeks above symphysis pubis. EXAM

Fundus 16 weeks between symphysis pubis and umbilicus.

Fundus at 20 weeks is at umbilicus.

2 cm more or less from # of wk gestation is normal if more or less order US -

Fundal height 12 weeks

Iron, TIBC - 3 month old infant with down syndrome, due to milk intolerance, mom started on goats milk; now has pale conjunctiva but otherwise healthy. Low HCT. What additional test would you order?

Increase Medication - 3 months of synthroid, TSH increased, T4 normal, what do you do?

learnexams

Mini mental exam - 3 ways to assess cognitive function in patient with signs/symptoms of memory loss tell her it is normal. - 4 month old with strabismus, mom is worried.....

Growth chart - 4 month old wont keep anything down, what is the main thing you look at?

XRAY - 6 month old closed anterior fontanel.

Refer for Colposcopy - Abnormal cells on PAP, what do you do next?

Cut down

Annoyed by criticism

Guilty about drinking
Eye opener drink - CAGE ACRONYM

Fever
Anemia
Hypotension - Causes of tachycardia

CN 3,4,6 - Cranial nerves responsible for extraocular eye movements cluster of conditions that increase risk of heart disease, stroke, diabetes. - Definition of metabolic syndrome

wet prep - diagnose trichomoniasis

Pelvic US - Elderly presents with atrophic vaginitis, small uterus, palpable 4x5 ovary, what do you do next?

Anterior septum - Epistaxis is most common in the area of the nose known as Kiesselbach's triangle, where is this located?

urinalysis and culture - Definitive diagnosis of acute bacterial prostatitis

H2 is first line, give H₂ - GERD treatment

LEEP
excision - Grade 3 cells on Pap, treatment?

drill hole and drain blood? - Fingernail hematoma treatment?

Salpingitis, or history of abortion, PID, - Increased risk of ectopic pregnancy

Measles (rubeola). Grains of salt lesions inside mouth in Measles - Koplick spots

Measles (rubeola). Grains of salt lesions inside mouth in Measles - Koplick spots

Avascular necrosis of the proximal femoral head - Legg-Calve-Perthes Disease

Pancreatitis - Lipid level of 1500, increased risk for?

Macrocytic anemia, B12 Def - Low HGB, Low HCT, High MCV indicates what?

Enlarged, symmetrical, smooth - Man with BPH, prostate feels on digital exam?

Arterial Insufficiency - Man with HTN, CAD, present femoral pulses but absent pedal

Meniscus tears - McMurray's Sign

(+) palpable or audible click while extending with varus stress

pivot shift test (ACL tear) - Lachman's Test refer to orthopedist - Newborn with foot turned in, what do you do?

Knee pain.

inflammation or irritation of the tibia at its point of attachment with the patellar tendon - Osgood-Schlatter disease

Alzheimer's - Patient forgot to start Thanksgiving dinner and husband states she has trouble remembering tasks and trouble with organization. What is this indicative of?

Refer to oncologist - Pt has Barretts Esophagus, insurance no longer covers GI who was treating condition. Pt at FNP office wanting refill prescriptions. What do you do?

Tinea Corporis - Pt presents with rash on shoulder, erythematous maculopapular rash with center clearing and scaling?

Varicocele - Pt presents with "bag of worms:", indicates?