

1. A nurse manager at a clinic for clients who are homeless notes that many of the clients who have a history of mental illness and substance use disorder. While compiling figures for a regulatory agency about the clients who visit the clinic, the nurse should classify these clients as having which of the following condition?
 - A. Codependency
 - B. Bipolar disorder
 - C. Comorbidity
 - D. Somatization disorder

2. A nurse is responding to a community-wide request for health care providers to come to the scene of an explosion. When using the North Atlantic Treaty Organization triage system, the nurse should put which of the following tags on a client who is unresponsive and has third-degree burns on over 75% of their body?
 - A. Red
 - B. Yellow
 - C. Green
 - D. Black

3. A nurse is teaching a community group about smallpox. When discussing possible means of transmission, which of the following statements by a member of the group indicates further teaching is needed?

- A. "Smallpox can be transmitted through bodily fluids, such as blood or vomit."
 - B. "Smallpox can be transmitted through contaminated objects, such as bedding and clothing."
 - C. "Smallpox can be transmitted through bites from insects, such as mosquitoes."
 - D. "Smallpox can be transmitted through inhalation of droplets, such as from coughing."
4. A community health nurse is caring for a client who was exposed to HIV 2 days ago. The client asks the nurse what she should do. Which of the following responses should the nurse take first?
- A. "I will administer an HIV vaccine today, and it will need to be repeated in 3 months."
 - B. "I will administer an HIV test today, and you will need to return in 48 hours for me to read the results."
 - C. "You will need to have an HIV test every other week for 6 months."
 - D. "You will need to take prophylactic medications for 4 weeks."

learnexams

5. A home health nurse and an assistive personnel are discussing the care needs of a client. Which of the following statements by the AP requires intervention by the nurse?
- A. "I will change the client's PICC line dressing on my next visit."
 - B. "Bathing the client is something that I can do without assistance."
 - C. "I assist the client in ambulating outdoors each time I visit."
 - D. "Next time I visit, I plan to clean up the clutter in the client's bedroom."
6. An occupational health nurse is providing teaching to a group of clients about the risks of the work environment. Which of the following actions is the nurse performing?