

ATI Community Health Predictor Exam Form B | Questions and Answers | Latest, 2020 / 2021

1. A public health nurse is lobbying Congress funding for health screenings provided to migrant farm workers. Which of the following concepts is the nurse demonstrating?

ANS: Advocacy

2. Community leaders have requested a meeting with a community health nurse to discuss creating a mobile meals program. Which of the following information should the community health nurse assess first?

ANS: The need for the program

3. A nurse is giving a presentation about family violence at a local community center. Which of the following information should the nurse include?

ANS: Child maltreatment is more common in homes where partner violence is present.

4. An adult child who is terminally ill and at the end of life approaches a hospice nurse and asks "What can I do to help relieve my father's pain?" Which of the following interventions should the nurse suggest?

ANS: Give your father brief hand massages

5. A nurse is developing an educational program about bioterrorism and smallpox. The nurse should include the teaching that the smallpox rash is expected to first appear in which of the following locations?

ANS: Face

6. A community health nurse is working with a community where the incidence of violence has increased. Which of the following actions should the nurse take as a tertiary prevention strategy?

ANS: Provide victims of violence with referral information to crisis lines

7. A community health nurse is working in a mobile health care clinic. Which of the following clients should the nurse assess first?

ANS: A client who has a new onset of confusion and slurred speech

8. A nurse is assessing a new client at a public health clinic. Which of the following areas should the nurse address as part of the cultural assessment?

ANS: Illness practices

9. A nurse is conducting a home visit for an older adult client. The nurse should identify which of the following findings as an indicator of possible neglect?

ANS: Taking outdated prescriptions

10. A community health nurse is made aware that several children, who are from the same family and did not receive immunizations, have contracted measles. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?