

ATI Comprehensive Final Exam | Questions and Answers | Latest 2021/2022 |Rasmussen College

1. A nurse is talking with a parent of a preschooler. The parent reports that her child grows upset at night and does not go to bed at a consistent time. Which of the following instructions should the nurse give the parent?
 - Use a stable relaxing routine such as a bath and bedtime story before bed
2. A nurse is caring for a client who has regular occupational exposure to sunlight and comes to the clinic for evaluation of several skin lesions. Which of the following findings should alert the nurse to the possibility of malignant melanoma?
 - And irregularly shaped brown lesion with light blue areas on the neck
3. The healthcare facilities leadership team is implementing a new computerized charting system. Before the implementation date, which of the following actions should the charge nurse take first?
 - Collect the staff input about planning and implementing the change
4. A nurse is reinforcing teaching with the parent of a child who has type one diabetes how to manage the child's disorder during illness, such as cold. Which of the following statements by the parent indicates an understanding of the teaching?

- I'll check his blood glucose more often

5. A nurse is reviewing the medical record of a client who has requesting a prescription for sildenafil citrate. Which of the following data in the clients record should the nurse identify as a contradiction for the use of this medication?

- Current use of nitro to treat heart failure

6. A nurse is reinforcing teaching with the school-age child has just had a fiberglass cast application follow a lower extremity fracture. Which of the following instructions should the nurse reinforced with the child and his parents about care during the first 48 hours?

- Keep the cast above the level of your heart

7. A nurse in a rehabilitation facility is observing an AP help a client transfer from the bed to a wheelchair. Which of the following actions indicate to the nurse that the AP understands how to perform this task?

- Lock the brakes on the bed and the wheelchair before moving the client

8. A nurse is caring for a client who has a platelet count Of 50,000. After discontinuing the clients peripheral IV site, which of the following actions should the nurse take?

- Apply pressure to the catheter removal site for 10 minutes

9. A nurse is caring for a client who spent the past several minutes mumbling about being doomed to die and is now pacing in an increasingly agitated and angry manner. Which of the following actions is the nurses priority?

- Attempt to reduce environmental stimuli

10. Nurse is collecting data from a 66-year-old client during a routine physical examination at her first clinic visit and she does not have her medical records. When the nurse asks if she has received the pneumococcal immunization, the client replies I am not sure but it's been at least five years since I've had any immunizations. Which of the following responses should the nurse make?

- Let's go ahead with giving you this immunization

11. A new resident provider asks the nurse for an access code to review a clients online record. The resident is not scheduled to attend the Facility's orientation computer class until next week. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

- Explained that it is against policy to share access codes and refer the resident to his supervisor

12. A nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has type two diabetes. The client states I eat pasta every day. I can't imagine giving it up. Which of the following responses should the nurse make?

- You don't have to give up pasta; just adjust the amount you eat