

ATI MENTAL HEALTH EXAM 2020 A

a nurse is assisting the charge nurse with the preparation for an in-service about negligence for a group of newly licensed nurses. which of the following scenarios should the charge nurse use as an example to identify negligence?

Answer:

a nurse does not notify the provider of a change of condition for a client who has schizophrenia.

a nurse assisting with a mental status examination for a client who has schizophrenia. which of the following statements should the nurse make to gather information about the clients ability to think abstractly?

Answer:

learnexams

"how is an orange similar to an apple?"

a nurse is collecting data from a client who has bipolar disorder and a history of mania. which of the following should the nurse identify as an indication the client is relapsing?

Answer:

pressured speech

a nurse is assisting with discharge planning for a client who needs to attend a day treatment center and has limited community and financial support. which of the following referrals should the nurse recommend including in the clients discharge plan?

Answer:

social worker

a nurse is caring for a client who gave birth to a stillborn fetus 1 week ago. The client states to the nurse, "I am so angry that my doctor didn't take better care of me and my baby." which of the following responses should the nurse make?

Answer:

"it is important to share what you are feeling, even if it is anger."

a nurse is attempting to establish a therapeutic relationship with a newly admitted client. which of the following actions should the nurse plan to take during the working phase of the nurse-client relationship?

Answer:

promote the development of problem solving skills.

a nurse is collecting data from a client who is experiencing alcohol withdrawal. which of the following findings should the nurse expect?

Answer:

diaphoresis