

CNA FINAL PRACTICE EXAM 2023-2024 ACTUAL EXAM 300 QUESTIONS AND CORRECT
DETAILED ANSWERS (VERIFIED ANSWERS)
|ALREADY GRADED A+

A resident has weakness on her left side. You are transferring her from the bed to the wheelchair. Where should you position the wheelchair? - ANSWER- Next to the bed on her right side

A transfer belt is not needed to transfer a resident from the bed to a chair. For the transfer, how should you hold onto the person? - ANSWER- Place your hands under the person's arms and around her shoulder blades

learnexams

You are going to transfer a resident from the wheelchair back to bed. Where should you position the wheelchair? - ANSWER- On the person's strong side

The nursing center has a new mechanical lift. Which statement is correct? - ANSWER- You need to be trained in its use

A patient has slid down in the wheelchair. The person cannot assist with repositioning. To safely reposition the person - ANSWER- A mechanical lift is used

Symptoms are - ANSWER- Subjective data

Information that you can see, hear, feel, or smell is - ANSWER- Objective data

Which vessels carry blood away from the heart? - ANSWER- Arteries

You give wrong information on a job application. This is - ANSWER- Fraud

Being dependable means the following except - ANSWER- Being eager to learn

Persons needing respite care - ANSWER- Are admitted to nursing centers for short stays

A person is in a coma. This means that the person - ANSWER- Cannot respond to others

The musculoskeletal system does the following except - ANSWER- Helps regulate body temperature

A resident's son is visiting. Which will NOT protect the residents privacy - ANSWER- Exposing the residents body in front of her son

The white of the eye is the - ANSWER- Sclera

After water is absorbed from chyme, the remaining semi-solid material is called - ANSWER- Feces

Your work is causing you stress. What should you do? - ANSWER- Talk to the nurse

Who helps patients, residents, and families with social, emotional, and environmental issues affecting illness and recovery? - ANSWER- The social worker

An assisted living residence - ANSWER- Provides three meals a day and housekeeping and laundry services

learnexams

Which of the following should you report to the nurse? - ANSWER- Red-colored urine

A man is going to use the urinal. What should he do when he is done? - ANSWER- Hang it on the bedrail

These statements are about incontinence. Which is incorrect? - ANSWER- It is a matter of personal choice

A resident has a catheter. Catheter care is given - ANSWER- According to the care plan

Persons with catheters need perineal care - ANSWER- Daily and after bowel movements

When giving catheter care, you need to hold the catheter at the - ANSWER- Meatus

Defecation is - ANSWER- The process of excreting feces from the rectum through the anus

Flatus is - ANSWER- Gas or air passed through the anus

Which foods are needed for normal bowel movements - ANSWER- Fruits and vegetables

learnexams

Which does not slow the passage of feces through intestines - ANSWER- Exercise and activity

You are assisting a resident with elimination. You need to do the following except - ANSWER- Stand next to the person until the person is finished

A resident complains of diarrhea. The person needs assistance with ambulation. When the person's signal light is on, you need to - ANSWER- Answer promptly