

Derivative Classification Exam Questions and Answers

2022/2023

1. The document that provides basic guidance and regulatory requirements for derivative classification for DoD personnel is   DoDM 5200.01, Volumes 1-4, DoD Information Security Program
2. The process of using existing classified information to create new material and marking the new material consistent with the classification markings that apply to the source information   Derivative classification
3. Which of the following is an authorized source for derivative classification?: None of the above
4. DoD and contractor personnel must receive initial training in the proper application of derivative classification principles prior to derivatively classifying any materials and they must received refresher training at least once every__years or their derivative classification authority is suspended   Two
5. All of the following are authorized sources for derivative classification except   Unconfirmed Source
6. You formally challenge the classification of information and the classifying agency provides a partial response. What do you have the right to do if the classifying agency does not provide a full response within 120 days?-

: Forward the challenge to the Interagency Security Classification Appeals Panel (ISCAP)

7. All of the following are ways to promote the sharing of information within the Federal government, across state, local, and tribal governments and with coalition partners, law enforcement, and the general public except  Use dissemination control markings

8. A Security Classification Guide (SCG) is  A collection of precise, comprehensive guidance about specific program, system operation, or weapon system elements of information to be classified

9. Who is responsible for providing contractors proper classification guidance during the performance of a contract?: Government Contracting Activity (GCA)

10. The source document states:

(x) The exercise will last nine days.

The new document states:

(x) The exercise will consist of four days of preparation and the remaining five days will consist of execution of plans.

learnexams