

Exam 1: NUR155/ NUR 155 (Latest 2023/ 2024) Foundations of Nursing Exam| Questions and Answers| Grade A| Galen

Q: Assessment physical examination order

Answer:

Inspection, palpation, percussion, auscultation

Q: hypothermia symptoms

Answer:

Pale, cool, waxy skin

Q: What occurs to the pulse when a patient has a fever.

Answer:

Elevated pulse

Q: A patients blood pressure drops when he stands up, what is this called

Answer:

Orthostatic hypotension

Q: Bladder cuff too narrow

Answer:

High reading

Q: Bladder cuff too wide

Answer:

low

Q: Unsupported arm

Answer:

high

Q: Cuff wrapped too loosely or unevenly

Answer:

false high reading

learnexams

Q: Deflating cuff too slowly

Answer:

false high diastolic reading

Q: Deflating cuff too quickly

Answer:

false low systolic and false high diastolic

Q: If client initial exam how should the nurse find the systolic pressure

Answer:

Palpation

Q: When to use a doppler ultrasound stethoscope

Answer:

Difficult to hear pressure sounds, in infants, the obese or clients in shock

Q: What is a result of inadequate circulating blood or reduction in tissue oxygenation

Answer:

Pallor

Q: What is a bluish tinge most evident in nail beds, lips and buccal mucosa

Answer:

Cyanosis

Q: If a client's sclera is yellowing what could this be a sign of

Answer:

Jaundice

Q: What is the skin redness associated with rashed called?

Answer:

Erythema

learnexams