

NUR 2513 Maternal-Child Nursing

Rasmussen Maternal Child Exam 2

True or False: when assessing your postpartum patient's fundus, it's expected you performed this with one hand?

- FALSE

At 3 days postpartum, the fundal height is expected to be _____ centimeters below the umbilicus?

- 3

You are taking care of a newborn that was born at 34 weeks gestation. Based on this, you expect this newborn to have creases on _____ (amount) of the sole of the foot?

- 1/2

The anterior fontanelle is the last to close, and it's expected to close at _____ months?

- 18

Identify this Tanner stage: male with curly pubic hair that extends to pubis, scrotum continues to enlarge and penis becomes longer and slightly wider.

- Stage 3

Identify this tanner stage: female with enlargement of entire breast with formation of areola and papilla. Course, thicker curly pubic hair, less than adult.

- Stage 4

Scoliosis will most commonly occur between this age range:

- 9 - 15 years of age

Newborn is nearly impossible to console evidenced by incessant crying, and you suspect the mother was suffering from an addiction to heroin. Based on the newborn expression, you're concerned about which syndrome?

- Neonatal abstinence syndrome

1st degree episiotomy

- Only vaginal mucosa

Ice and may need some sutures

learnexams

2nd degree episiotomy

- Included addition of tear of vaginal muscle

Ice, analgesics and sitz bath

3rd degree episiotomy

- Included addition of tear up to rectal sphincter.

Ice, analgesic, sitz bath and perhaps a stool softener.