
HESI RN Pharmacology

2023 - V1

Nursinghero.RN@gmail.com

A client who is receiving multiple antihypertensive medication has a potassium level of 6.2 mEq/L (6.2 mmol/L SI). Which of the client's prescribed medications can the nurse safely administer?

- ☐ A Aldactone (Spironolactone).
- ☐ B Valsartan (Diovan).
- ☒ C Hydrochlorothiazide (Microzide).
- ☐ D Lisinopril (Zestril).

1. A client who is receiving multiple antihypertensive medication has his potassium level of 6.2 mEq/L (6.2 mmol/L SI). Which of the client prescribed medications can the nurse safely administer?