

Pharmacology NURS 251 Module 9 Exam

1. Select the characteristic below that is consistent with a specialty medication. ANS treat a complex disease state

2. True or False. Patients must go through a specialty pharmacy to obtain a medication that is considered a specialty medication; retail pharmacies do not stock them. ANS True

3. List three characteristics of specialty medications. ANS 1. Stock high cost medications

2. Holds medications that are specific to complex diseases

3. Sometimes involves a case manager to monitor the patient

4. List three classes of medications that are considered specialty medications. ANS 1. immunomodulating drugs

2. anti-TNF monoclonal antibody

3. HAART

5. Match the disease state with the statement that is true of that disease. ANS

Can-cer - involves the development of abnormal

Multiple Sclerosis - involved the CNS

RA - autoimmune disorder

Crohn's disease - inflammation in the digestion tract

Hepatitis C - virus that lead to liver damage

HIV - bodys own immune system is attacked

6. True or False. The initial treatment for Rheumatoid arthritis includes a class of medications called DMARDS (disease modifying anti-rheumatic drugs).

ANS - True