

NUR 2474 PHARMACOLOGY FOR PROFESSIONAL NURSING

Pharm Quiz 6

A client has been prescribed diltiazem (Cardizem), and asks the nurse what type of drug this is. Which response by the nurse is most appropriate?

Correct Answer:

"A calcium channel blocker."

A client has been prescribed several medications. Which medication is a beta blocker?

Correct Answer:

Nadolol (Corgard)

A client has been prescribed an antiplatelet drug, and asks the nurse to explain why this medication has been prescribed. Which response by the nurse is the most appropriate?

Correct Answer:

"These medications are used to prevent clot formation in arteries."