

USMC Risk Management Pvt-Lcpl Annual Training 2021 Post-Test with complete solution

Anticipate and manage risk by planning. - The statement, "You are more likely to control risks when they are identified earlier rather than later" is associated with what level of Risk Management principle?

Accept risk when benefits outweigh the cost. - Weighing risks against benefits and value is an example of applying which of the following Risk Management principles?

Determining the probability and severity of a DUI caused accident before going to a bar. - Which of the following is an example of the second step, assess hazards, in the 5-step Risk Management Process.

Identify hazards, assess hazards, make decisions, implement controls, supervise. - Which of the following depicts the 5-step Risk Management Process in the correct order?

Deliberate - A battalion commander and her staff conduct a Marine Corps Planning Process (MCP) session to develop an operations order (OPLAN) for an upcoming offensive operation. The operation begins in 96-hours. The MCP session would fall under which Risk Management level?

False - True or false, creating a risk assessment worksheet is associated with Time Critical Risk Management (TCRM).

Balance your resources. - Your unit is on a security patrol during a stability operation. You come across a civilian female who is in great distress. The Corpsman assesses that she is pregnant, in labor, and about to deliver. There are no indications of enemy activity in the local area. Under the rules of engagement (ROE), your patrol is required to provide medical assistance to civilians when there are no imminent threats. Using the ABCD Model what would be the next step?

Administrative - First Sergeant Jones posts a sign outside the entrance to the maintenance shop indicating that hearing protection is required inside. This is an example of what type of risk control?

Designing and installing a ventilation system to reduce exposure to toxic fumes in a building. - Choose an example of an engineering control.