

SFPC Study Guide Questions and Answers 2023 Graded A+

Purpose of DoD IS Program - Answer Proper classification, protection, and downgrading of official information that requires protection

Executive Order 10290 - Answer 1951: First program to protect classified

Executive Order 13526 - Answer 2009: Established National Declassification Center; Focuses on greater openness

Information Security Oversight Office - Answer Oversees and manages IS Program

National Security Council (Infosec) - Answer Provides overall policy for IS Program

DoDI 5200.01 - Answer Establishes basic DoD IS Policy

DoD 5200.01, Vol 1-4 - Answer Guidance on classification management; requirements for marking, handling, and protection of classified

In order to classify information it: - Answer -Must be owned, produced by, produced for, or under strict control of the USG
-Determined that unauthorized disclosure could cause damage to National Security

Marking and designating classified information is the responsibility of? - Answer
Original and Derivative Classifiers

Top Secret if divulged - Answer Exceptionally Grave Damage

Secret if divulged - Answer Serious Damage

Confidential if divulged - Answer Damage

Six Steps of Classification - Answer 1. If the info official gov't info?
2. Is the info eligible to be class?
3. Is there a potential for damage to nat'l security if unauthorized release occurs?
4. Assign a level of classification
5. Assign a duration of classification
6. Communicate the decision (SCG and marking source doc)

Security Classification Guide - Answer - Provide derivative classification instructions
- Describe elements of info that must be protected

- Provide the level and duration of class

Derivative Classification - Answer Not an authority, but an assumed responsibility

Two ways of declassification? - Answer Downgrading and declassification

Scheduled Declassification - Answer Occurs when the instructions by OCA are followed (usually a date or event)

Automatic Declassification - Answer -Applies to classified that has been determined to have permanent historical value under Title 44 USC
-31 Dec of the year 25 dates from OCA

Mandatory Declassification Review - Answer Requests come in from public

Classified Custodial Responsibilities - Answer -Protecting information at all times.
-Securing info in locked container when not in use.
-Verifying a person's need to know/access level
-Following safeguarding procedures

Approved Storage for Classified - Answer 1. GSA-Approved Containers
2. Secure Rooms
3. Vaults

SF-705 - Answer Confidential Cover Sheet

SF-704 - Answer Secret Cover Sheet

SF-703 - Answer TS Cover Sheet

Security Violation (InfoSec) - Answer Knowing, willful, or negligent action:
-Could reasonably be expected to result in unauthorized disclosure
-To classify or continue classify information contrary to EO 13526
-Create or continue a SAP contrary to EO 13526

Security Infraction (InfoSec) - Answer Security incident involving failure to comply with EO 13526 or it's implementing directives which cannot reasonably be expected to and does not result in the loss, suspected compromise, or actual compromise of classified information.

Actual Compromise of Classified - Answer Unauthorized disclosure of classified information